Denver Public School’s 28th Annual Shakespeare Festival 2011-2012 Seminar

Career Education Center (CEC), Room 212
2650 Eliot Street, Denver, Colorado
Tuesday, November 15, 2011

Seminar Registration Deadline: Monday, November 7, 2011

2012’s Theme Play: The Taming of the Shrew

Festival Date: Friday, May 11, 2012

8:30-9:00  Sign-In and Continental Breakfast: oatmeal/w raisins & berries, hard-boiled eggs, homemade rolls w/butter & jam, coffee and orange juice

9:00-9:30  Welcome and General Information Session

9:30-11:30  Denver Center for the Performing Arts, Tam Frye, Director: “ACTivating Taming of the Shrew.” Warm-ups and simple tricks to unlock text for students.

11:30-11:40  Break

11:40-12:10  Colorado Shakespeare Festival, Amanda Giguere, Literary Manager/Education Associate: “Crash Course on Shakespeare.” How to cut lines, choose appropriate scenes, and work with large and small groups of students.

12:15-1:00  Beautiful buffet lunch in the Eliot Street Café’ 1st Floor CEC: Chefs Tom, Trisha, Johnny and Steve present a tossed green salad w/Italian vinaigrette dressing, and your buffet choices: Chicken Marsala, Roast Tri-Tip, Baked Cod Meuniere and Mac & Cheese, Potatoes and a Vegetable. Dessert will be two of the chef's choices.

1:05-2:35  Continuation of “Crash Course”

2:35-2:45  General Session: Closing questions and answers

Budget funds are not being used for this Seminar. Colorado Shakespeare Festival’s fee and the meals are financed through your $30 Seminar fee.